

All Traditional students whose matriculation into King University represent their first full-time college or university enrollment, and are classified as “New Freshmen,” are required to take KING 1000, First Year Seminar.

All Traditional students who matriculate into King University having had prior full-time college or university enrollment are required to take KING 2000, Transfer Year Seminar. Students who have earned a baccalaureate degree prior to their matriculation into King University are not required to take KING 2000, although they may choose to do so.

All Traditional King degree-seeking students are required to satisfy KING 3000, Cross-Cultural Experience, and KING 4000, Christian Faith and Social Responsibility, as a part of the Common Experience of the Core Curriculum general education requirements.

All students matriculating into the Associate of Arts program are required to take KING 1500, Introduction to Higher Education, as a part of their program of study. Students who matriculate into other GPS programs and need elective hours are encouraged to include KING 1500 as a part of their program of study.

All King University undergraduate degree-seeking students enrolled in either the Associate of Arts Degree program or any Bachelor’s Degree program will be enrolled by the university in KING 4020 during the graduation semester. This course is the OAK (Outcomes Assessment at King) test that serves as comprehensive assessment for general education coursework and experiences (see Policy 2.05.100 Comprehensive Assessment of General Education).
