

Institute Jacques Lefèvre
Studies in French Language and Culture

In cooperation with the Jacques Lefèvre Institute near Caen on the coast of the Normandy region of France, King offers a six-week program of summer study in French language and culture. Five weeks in Normandy include coursework and excursions to various regional points of interest, such as the D-day landing beaches. All groups also spend several days in Paris which generally include major monuments and museums as well as visits to the national theatre and national opera of France.

Three study tracks allow students of skill levels ranging from intermediate to advanced, to participate in the program. Advanced students take courses at a national University in the region. Students may earn as many as 9 credits during the program.
